RE: 2009 Helen Keller International Art Show
Seattle, Washington Edition

This is a call for the Helen Keller International Art Show sponsored by the Council for Exceptional Children Division on Visual Impairments and the University of Alabama at Birmingham Vision Science Research Center and School of Education. This invitation is for individuals who are visually impaired, blind, or deafblind to submit artwork. Students may select the preferred art medium. The contest is open to students of all ages.

The winning entries from the international contest will be exhibited, beginning with the CEC International Conference in Seattle, Washington, April of 2009. The purpose is to promote an awareness of the abilities of persons who are visually impaired, blind or deafblind.

Please submit art work by January 31, 2009 along with the student information form that can be downloaded from the website www.cecdvi.org or www.nationaldb.org to:
