

Photos and Videos for NCDB Professional Development Module

NEEDS

The next module in our Teaching Children Who Are Deafblind professional development series will focus on how educators can best support young adults and their families prepare for the transition from school to adulthood. We are looking for photos and videos of teens and young adults who are deafblind that show them

- Communicating and interacting with others socially and in work/school/activity settings
- Working on developing life skills, such as cooking, doing chores, navigating city streets, riding buses, etc.
- At their workplace or other setting doing tasks and responsibilities
- Enjoying activities in their homes and communities (could be living with parents, independent living, in an adult living facility, or other living situation)

PAYMENT

As a thank you, you will receive $15 for each photo and $50 for each video we use.

PERMISSIONS

Note that anyone pictured in a photo or video will need to submit this online media permission form, which allows us to use the photo or video in our educational materials (parents should submit a form for their children).

CONTACT US

If you have photos or videos that fit what we're looking for, or have any questions, please contact Ann Biswas, writer, at the National Center on Deafblindness, at abiswas@helenkeller.org.

The contents of this website were developed under a grant from the U.S. Department of Education, #H326T230030. However, those contents do not necessarily represent the policy of the U.S. Department of Education, and you should not assume endorsement by the Federal Government. Project Officer, Rebecca Sheffield.