Student grant support

For special education teachers interested in gaining an endorsement in teaching learners with deafblindness.

- Scholarships are available to support students wanting to complete a Master's Degree with an endorsement in deafblindness (DB).
- This scholarship will provide $25,625 - more than enough to pay all tuition and fees associated with the program.
- The program in deafblindness is available to complete as a distance program!
- In addition to coursework and fieldwork in deafblindness, scholars will participate in a specialized curriculum with an emphasis on collaborating with occupational therapists.
